FOREWORD

Since the centennial of the Civil War is being observed, and since there is located in the Four Oaks school district the site of one of the last famous battles of the Civil War, "Bentonville" has been chosen as the theme for this 1963 ACORN.

Almost all of the Four Oaks School students have, at one time or another, visited the Harper House, the monuments, and the trenches at historic Bentonville. In fact, many of our students live in the surrounding area.

In this yearbook the staff has compared our school system and how it works to the fighting army at Bentonville and to the Confederate armies of the Civil War. We, in a sense, are an "army" striving for victory - the mastery of an education. As you turn through these pages, note how efficiently our army is operated

DEDICATION

MISS THELMA HARRIS

To one who through her warmth and sincerity has challenged us to strive toward higher ideals . . .

To one who has unselfishly given of herself to her students and to the activities of our school . . .

To one who inspires us with her cheerfulness and constantly proves herself to be our friend . . .

To you, Miss Thelma Harris, we the members of the 1963 ACORN staff dedicate our yearbook as a token of our love and appreciation.

ADMINISTRATION

ADMINIS

Mr. H.J. Beeker
Four Oaks School Principal

Our school, just as an army, must have its leaders if it is to perform effectively the functions for which it is operated. Our "generals" lead us through the battles and over the obstacles of our school days from age six to age eighteen. Not only are they our commanding officers, but they are also our friends and companions. They give us helpful guidance so that we are able to come out of the battle with few scars and a good record of service.

We lose some along the way as an army does, but those who receive that final "discharge" look back to these leaders with a thankful heart, glad that they have been prepared to meet the coming battles of life. Many thanks to our fine leaders!

SENIORS

Mike Allen	President
Jerry Barbour	Vice-President
Ann Johnson	Secretary
Peggy Massengill	Treasurer

The seniors will soon receive their discharge papers. No longer will they be under the careful supervision and guidance of their school. They have served well and have received and stored much information in the past twelve years. Now they are ready to use their knowledge in the battles ahead of them. The way will not be easy; many battles will be lost, but a basic education and a good sense of values will carry these young people far in life.

Harold Keen Treasurer

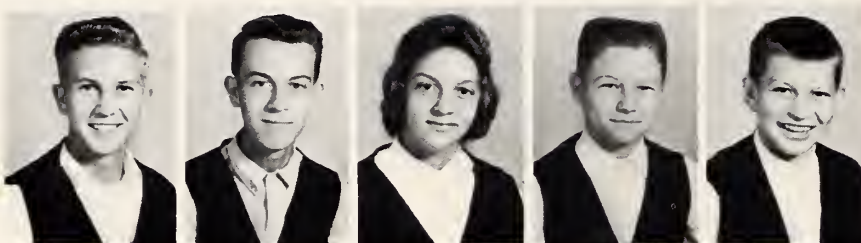

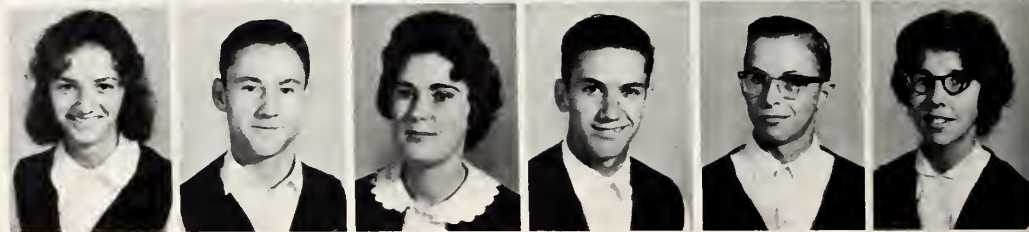

Just as recruits must adjust to army life, so must freshmen adjust to high school. As freshmen they enter the final stages of the mighty battle of acquiring an education. The promotion from elementary grades to high school is a major step for these students. They know that to be victorious they must be honest, loyal, faithful, and must have a willingness to work hard.

ARCHIVES AND HIGHWAY COMMISSION

Each year many new recruits enter our ranks. As first graders they are on the threshold of a mighty battle which they must win if they are to be successful. They go forward through eight years of basic training until they are prepared for high school. These are the junior reserves being trained for the special tasks that await them during the coming years.

ORGANIZATIONS

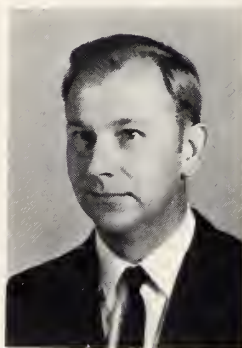

Divisions such as the Infantry, the Cavalry, and the Medical Corp were integral parts of the Civil War Army. One fighting without the others could not have waged a winning battle. The divisions of our school work together to produce a strong unit -- Four Oaks School.

The Student Council is an organization set up to govern the student body of Four Oaks High School. The Council is made up of two representatives, a girl and a boy, from each homeroom in high school, class president, and faculty advisors.

The purpose of the Student Council is to carry on such business as promoting school spirit, scheduling school activities, and enforcing school rules. The Student Council might be called the "headquarters" of our "army".

President Don Stephenson presides at a regular meeting of the Student Council.

The ACORN staff is proud that we have been given the privilege of presenting to you the '63 ACORN. Many long hours of planning, picture taking, paneling, and typing have gone into this, your yearbook. We have planned for the best, worked for the best, and have been repaid by the quality of the yearbook produced. We present to you the 1963 ACORN and hope that this pictorial review of the activities of your school year will recall many pleasant memories in the years to come.

ACORN STAFF

Many long hours of work go into the making of a yearbook. Staff members are often called to familiar meetings such as this where each does his best to help meet the coming deadline.

Business Manager

The OAK LEAF Staff is made up of first period study hall students who are interested in journalism. There is no journalism class at Four Oaks this year, so staff members do their work without being required to do so. The OAK LEAF offers a challenge to student journalists and news and entertainment to students and faculty.

Staff members review another issue of the OAK LEAF, hot off the press.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

OFFICERS: Sammy George, President; Don Gardner, Vice-president; Katherine Langdon, Secretary; Francine Johnson, Treasurer; Larry Allen, Publicity Chairman.

The National Honor Society is the highest scholastic club of our school. Its standards are high, and its members are few. Anyone chosen a member of the Society must show exceptional ability in each of the following: scholarship, leadership, character, and service. He must be a junior or a senior and have a scholastic average of 92 or above. A total of 750 plus points is required, and 30 additional points must be earned each six weeks. Being a member of the National Honor Society is one of the greatest honors one can achieve in high school.

Coach Stewart Wooten and Football Captain Donald Caudill.

Coach Wooten and Assistant Coach Mr. Dan Dandelake.

For the first time Four Oaks School has a football team. This 1962 football team did an outstanding task. The team won two games, and it scored in all but two games. This is an outstanding record of which few schools can boast in its first year of football. Team effort and the valuable assistance of Coach Dan Dandelake made this a successful season. Says Coach Stewart Wooten, "I would like personally to thank the Four Oaks Football Boosters Club for sponsoring the football program and for getting it started here at Four Oaks."

GIRLS' VARSITY BASKETBALL

Mr. Rudolph Langdon, Assistant Coach;
Katherine Langdon and Delores Ingram,
Co-Captains; Mr. Stewart Wooten, Coach.

To be a good basketball player one must devote many hours to practice. The Four Oaks girls do this willingly. They spend many hours in the gym perfecting plays for the coming games. The girls learn the qualities of good sportsmanship, and in the words of Coach Wooten, "They are a pleasure to work with."

Jump Four Oaks! Jump!

BOYS' VARSITY BASKETBALL

These boys have played well this year. The spirit of winning and team determination were present at each of their games. No teams have shown more "good sportsmanship" than the 1962-63 Four Oaks Cardinal teams. Mr. Rudolph Langdon, whose valuable knowledge and love for basketball has been transferred to the players, has been an inspiration to this year's fine athletic groups.

BASEBALL AND TRACK

Baseball is a favorite sport in the spring. Above is pictured an outstanding team. They were Pioneer AA Champions in 1962.

Track is a sport that provides needed exercise for those who participate. Being a member of the track team helps keep one physically fit and mentally alert. It is a valuable sport in developing youth fitness.
